1. HOSTEL RENOVATION ACTIVITY BY ALUMNUS

In the life of successful people there are something or some persons playing a pivotal role so he/ she remembers them. One of the great examples with our college alumni Shri Sureshji Deokar Sir who is the founder president of renowned Aditi Urban Credit Co-Operative Society Ltd., Buldhana. He is alumnus of Jijamata Mahavidyalaya, Buldhana. During his college education he stayed at our Boy's Hostel for five years. He considered that this facility from college for the rural students atminimal fees played milestone role in his life so he and many other students were able to get the higher education. Shri Suresh Deokar wanted to do something for college and for college hostel. When he consulted with staff, students of college he realised the need for renovation of Boy's Hostel. He expressed his desire to the principal of college contribute for this. By the permission from college and Shri Shivaji Education Society management this work was accomplished. Near about 18 Lakh rupees expenditure done on the boy's hostel and it was renovated successfully. Through this great work and support to the college, alumnus Mr. Suresh Deokar created the unique example. For his contributionthe Management, Staff and students appreciated him a lot.

4. Alumnus Shri Ramesh Narayan Kale's contribution in water conservation system.

Shri Ramesh Narayan Kale the alumnus of our college professionally has his Earth Movers business at Buldhana. When he felt that he can help the alma mater by providing earth moving machine (Excavator machine). He helped this without anycharges. The depth of water conservation pond in college campus was deepened. Definitely it helped to percolate more water in ground. This practice helped to increase the ground water level so the wells and water bodies in surrounding benefitted.
